Our guest speaker, Max Montrey, a Sammamish Arts Commission member and also a member of the Seattle Architect Foundation, presented the Arts Commission's vision of offering model-making workshops to the Sammamish community in 2013. Also, he and the commission are recruiting for volunteers to help plan and run the very successful, all weekend long Sammamish Arts Fair (event details attached here) and also at this link <http://sammamishartsfair.wordpress.com/home/> This year's fair is to include new, interactive exhibits such as a graffiti wall and yarn bombing.

Max can be reached at montrey@peripteral.com to learn more and express your interest in helping/working with the Arts Commission to offer diverse art opportunities to Sammamish residents.
